at 1600 on Saturday 29 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Warm sunshine on Sunday, but North Sea haar.

This Evening and Tonight:
A mainly dry end to the day with some bright or sunny spells, any isolated showers over the hills dying out. However, haar will be extensive around North Sea coasts, this developing more widely later in the evening and overnight. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Sunday:
The haar burning off during the morning, although lingering along some North Sea coasts through the afternoon. Otherwise dry with plenty of warm sunshine, but the east coast cooler. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A fine dry and warm spell of weather with some sunny periods. Haar affecting the Aberdeenshire coast, so cooler here. Freshening southeasterly wind.
